Arson suspected in Circle K fire

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Nov. 17, 2021

NORTH CHARLESTON, S.C. – Before 3:30 a.m. Wednesday, Nov. 17, 2021, a Charleston County Sheriff's Office deputy passing by the Circle K at 503 Main Road noticed that the gas station was on fire.

Crews from St. John's Fire District and additional deputies responded. No injuries were reported.

An initial investigation by detectives indicates that the fire is suspicious. There was evidence inside the store of thefts and attempted thefts. The business was closed at the time of the fire. Detectives will continue to process evidence and gather information to develop suspects in the case.
