Sunday September 25, 2022, at 3:00 PM., members of the Survivors of Homicide Support Group and other homicide survivors will hold its' Sixteenth Annual National Day of Remembrance for Murder Victims, with a brief ceremony at the Charleston County Sheriff's Office Law Enforcement Center, 3691 Leeds Avenue, Room D-131, North Charleston, SC. The Survivors of Homicide Support Group is a collaborative program between the Charleston County Sheriff's Office of Victim Assistance and the Medical University of SC Crime Victims Center, and presently meets four times per month in the tri-county area. This event is to commemorate the National Day of Remembrance for Murder Victims nationwide. It is also to honor the memories of murder victims and to recognize the impact on surviving family members and loved ones. Anyone losing a loved one to homicide, including traffic related homicides, is encouraged to attend, as well as victim assistance professionals working with homicide survivors. Survivors may bring a small picture of their loved ones if they so desire. Transportation may be provided for survivors. The public is invited. For additional information please call 843.792.2945, 843.745.2252, or 843.745.2250.
