Remains found after home fire in Hollywood area

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Friday, Nov. 4, 2022

NORTH CHARLESTON, S.C. – Detectives are investigating the death of a person whose remains were found early Friday morning in a Hollywood home that was destroyed by fire.

Deputies from the Charleston County Sheriff's Office responded with firefighters about 11:30 p.m. Thursday to the structure fire at 5781 Edgar Tumbleston Road. The mobile home was fully engulfed. The remains were later found inside the burned home.

Investigators determined that electricity had been shut off at the home. There is no evidence of arson or foul play at this time.

The Charleston County Coroner's Office will identify the man when appropriate.
