Public's help sought after toddler is found near Ladson

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Friday, April 14, 2023

NORTH CHARLESTON, S.C. – The Charleston County Sheriff's Office asks for the public's help identifying a toddler found Friday morning wandering near a Ladson apartment complex.

About 9:30 a.m., deputies responded to The Mason apartments on Mason Pond Place near Highway 78. The boy was found walking near one of the buildings in the community.

The deputies canvassed the area but were unable to find the child's family.

Anyone with information that would help the deputies reunite the child with his family can call dispatch at 843-743-7200 or dial 911.

UPDATE April 14, 2023

The child's mother was located in the community shortly before 11:30 a.m. Deputies are continuing to investigate.

Images were removed from this release after the parent was located.
