Woman injured in Awendaw shooting

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Thursday, Jan. 26, 2023

NORTH CHARLESTON, S.C. – Detectives from the Charleston County Sheriff's Office continue to investigate a shooting Wednesday night that injured a woman in the Awendaw area.

Deputies responded about 6:55 p.m. to a report of the shooting at 1063 Theodore Brunson Road, which is near Highway 17. They found a woman suffering a gunshot wound inside the home. She was transported to MUSC for treatment of the non-life-threatening injury.

Information gathered early in the investigation indicates that multiple people approached the home before ringing the doorbell. As a female resident came to the door, someone outside opened fire through the door, hitting the woman. Another resident in the home was not hurt.

Detectives do not believe the shooting was a random act. There is no known danger to the community.

There is no detailed description of the assailants, and no arrests have been made. Anyone with information can call the Sheriff's Office at 843-202-1700 or Crime Stoppers at 843-554-1111.

UPDATE Friday, March 3, 2023

Detectives from the Charleston County Sheriff's Office seek the public's help identifying those responsible for a shooting that injured an Awendaw woman earlier this year.

About 6:50 p.m. Jan. 24, a video doorbell showed four people near the front porch of a home at 1063 Theodore Brunson Road. The perpetrators rang the doorbell. A short time later, someone opened fire as one of the residents from the home came to the door, striking the woman. Another person inside at the time was not hurt.

The victim was transported to a hospital for treatment of non-life-threatening injuries.
